You and Your School . . .

YOU AND YOUR SCHOOL, NAPPANEE. YOU ARE NAPPANEE SCHOOL, EVEN AS NAPPANEE IS YOU. YOU REJOICE OVER HER VICTORIES, APPLAUD HER ENTERTAINMENTS, AND SORROW OVER HER MISFORTUNES, BECAUSE NAPPANEE SCHOOL IS YOUR SCHOOL.

SINCE YOU ARE NAPPANEE JUST AS NAPPANEE IS YOU, IT STANDS TO REASON THAT YOU MOLD THE CHARACTER OF YOUR SCHOOL. EACH YEAR YOU STRIVE FOR A GOOD SCHOLASTIC STANDING; YOU PARTICIPATE IN EXTRA CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES; YOU TRY RAISING THE MORAL STANDARD OF THE STUDENT BODY. THESE THINGS AND MANY OTHERS YOU CONTRIBUTE TO THE CHARACTER STRUCTURE OF YOUR SCHOOL.

WHEN YOU HAVE GIVEN OF YOUR BEST AND ABSORBED WHAT NAPPANEE SCHOOL HAS TO OFFER, YOUR JOB IS COMPLETE. HOWEVER, LONG AFTER YOU ARE NO LONGER PHYSICALLY PRESENT, WHAT YOU HAVE GIVEN WILL REMAIN FOREVER AN INTEGRAL PART OF NAPPANEE SCHOOL.

Napanet

As you read through your 1949 Napanet may you find something to remind you of pleasant memories. To the graduating class, may this book help recall treasured moments; to the underclassmen, may you look forward with anticipation to these "big" moments; and to those of you just looking through, may you enjoy it.

Yes, the 1949 "Napanet" Staff hopes you like this book as much as it has delighted in giving it to you. We want to extend especial thanks to everyone who helped make the publication of this book possible.

"D'Bulldog"

With the help of Mrs. Miles and Mr. Postma the journalism staff has published nine regular issues of the school paper. Much work goes into the finished product; after the reporters have turned in their material it must first be typed, then dummied; stencils must be cut and pages mimeographed and stapled together before "D'Bulldog" is finally distributed among the students.

SENIOR

In the percussion section, the upper right picture, the snare and bass drums mark time, while the kettledrums can be tuned to a definite pitch. A marching band would not be complete without its high stepping drum major and majorettes. In the middle picture you see the French horn that gets its graceful shape from the early hunter's horn. The deep voiced tuba produces rich tones that can be made soft and sweet. In the bottom picture you see the smallest brass instrument, the cornet with its brilliant voice. The curious trombone produces mellow tones by lengthening and shortening the slide.

CHORUS

The high school chorus, under the direction of our new leader, Miss Mary Berger, has enjoyed another active and successful year. Margaret Mutschler was our capable pianist.

Again this year a small percent of the members sang in a chorus of five hundred for the Teachers Association in South Bend. A Christmas program was given with the band, and the choir was heard on other occasions during the year.

The chorus, as well as many soloists and ensembles, participated in the district and state contests.

MARGARET MUTSCHLER .....President
MISS BERGER .....Director

Also during the year Fred Rice spent much time sorting and keeping the music in order.

CLASS MEMOIRS

Remember that day twelve short years ago, when you, as first graders, proudly entered the spacious halls of Nappanee school to take your place among your future classmates? Remember that little freckle faced boy and that shy, big-eyed little girl with a few teeth missing? Of course you do, because they were You, ready and eager to begin a new and taxing adventure. How swiftly these years have passed but how full of happiness and surprises they have been.

Each year you experienced new and wonderful things. You not only learned the fundamentals of education, but also you formed friendships, learned to share and get along with others.

All too soon the grade years were gone and you recall the panic and bewilderment as you gradually became accustomed to "high school life."

The years melted away into endless activity: first freshman, in which you were initiated into various clubs; then sophomore, when you dropped your shroud of shyness and were considered an upperclassman.

Before you realized it, you were a junior. You had the exciting privilege of planning the junior-senior reception and getting your class ring.

And then, one day, you found you had at last secured that coveted title of "senior." Yes, your goal had been reached, after a hard struggle. Your senior year was highlighted by the senior trip, baccalaureate, class day, reception, and at last, commencement. Those are the outstanding events to mark the completion of your high school days, but let's not minimize the eminence of your golden friendships, your service to others, and the little experiences of every day life—these things should be treasured highly.

Your high school days are completed; your new life has just begun. And it will be richer and fuller because of the opportunities you encountered these past twelve years.

Junior Class

We, the Junior Class. have been very busy this year. Our first activity was our magazine sales. We had set a goal of one thousand dollars of which we received about one third. We had a drawing among those students who sold over twenty-five dollars worth of subscriptions. Ferne Mikel was the lucky winner. She had a choice of a table model radio or a wrist watch; she chose the radio. The Curtis Publishing Company paid for half and we paid for the other half. Pegge Hare and Martha Corl were the team captains. Pegge's team won and was later given a party by the losing team.

The second big "shindig" was the Junior Valentine Ball. There was a night club atmosphere with floor show and candy girls. The big event of the evening was the crowning of the King, Queen, Prince and Princess of the dance. The money taken in from this dance was put into the treasury for next year's senior trip.

Class officers were:

PRESIDENT ..... Stanley Naylor
VICE-PRESIDENT ..... William Farrington
SECRETARY-TREASURER ..... Martha Corl

Our Student Council members were Patricia Hollar, Stanley Naylor, William Farrington, Mariette Mellinger and Arlene Schwartz.

Sophomore Class

We started out this year with a well organized class. Our sponsors are Mrs. Miles and Mr. Weddle. Our sixty-four members elected Forrest Dunnuck as president and Jerry Lentz as vice-president. The secretary-treasurer is Barbara Sharp.

Our class is well represented in Hi-Y and Y-Teens. We also have many members in chorus, band, dramatics; and we seem to have a few Future Homemakers and Future Farmers among us.

We have all enjoyed this year and are looking forward to the time when we will be called juniors.

Freshmen Class

On the third day of September we "Green Freshies" found ourselves entering the vast halls of N. H. S. Left to the mercy of upperclassmen we finally found everything running smoothly.

We were soon informed that, like every other class, we should elect officers; the results were as follows:

GEORGE SHEETS ..... President
DOUGLAS GEYER ..... Vice-president
PATRICIA RICHMOND ..... Secretary-treasurer

We elected Della Ina Chapman and Rose Reprogle as Student Council members.

We are proud to say that we have members in band, chorus, debate, dramatics, journalism, Y-Teens, Future Farmers, and basketball.

After long hours of worry and a few gray hairs, we finally decided upon a skating party at Elkhart for our first semester's party.

Our sponsors are Miss Weaver and Mr. White.

You and Your Administration

ALTHOUGH THE DECISIONS OF YOUR TEACHERS MAY NOT ALWAYS HAVE COINCIDED WITH YOURS, THEY HAVE DONE THEIR BEST TO GIVE TO YOU WHAT THEY HAVE LEARNED FROM EXPERIENCE. THEY HAVE EXCELLED IN PREPARING YOU FOR YOUR NEW LIFE BY HELPING YOU TO EXPAND YOUR VIEWS TO GAIN KNOWLEDGE.

YOUR ASSOCIATION WITH THE ADMINISTRATIVE BODY HAS NOT ONLY BROADENED YOUR EDUCATION ACADEMICALLY, BUT YOU HAVE LEARNED THE PRICELESS ESSENTIALS OF LIFE: THE COURAGE TO BE WHAT YOU ARE, TO CHERISH WHAT IS SIMPLE AND BEAUTIFUL, INDEPENDENCE, CHEERFULNESS, AND THE WILLINGNESS TO SERVE.

AS YOU STEP OUT INTO YOUR NEW ROLE, KEEP ALIVE THE MEMORIES OF THESE THINGS THAT HAVE BEEN GIVEN TO YOU. GUARD THEM AND CHERISH THEM AND REMEMBER THAT THE SECRET OF CULTURE IS TO LEARN.

"The Board of School Trustees and Superintendent regard the year 1948-1949 as most important in the discharge of their responsibilities to the youth of our community. Plans and surveys for future needs were carefully studied in addition to the ever present, and sometimes difficult task, of providing first class personnel and improved facilities so important in the training of boys and girls for useful citizenship in our American way of life."

Lyle K. Klitzke, Superintendent

"It is the hope of the faculty that they have, during their four years of contacts with the seniors of nineteen forty-nine, been able to contribute much toward fitting them better to their places as active, dynamic, and thinking citizens of a developing democracy."

On the second Tuesday of each month members of the School Board meet to discuss and render solutions to the many school problems. Their major duties revolve around the financial and administrative affairs of the school. They also must secure a sufficient number of capable teachers. Their main regard this year has concerned consolidation and the numerous problems connected.

Office Personnel . . .

Standing: Dorothy Young.
Seated: Katherine Zimmerman.

Dorothy Young and Katherine Zimmerman are the efficient secretaries of Mr. Roose and Mr. Klitzke. Their numerous jobs include keeping records, taking care of correspondence, checking attendance, and other general office work. Besides this, the two girls help with work in other school departments.

DON FOLTZ AND DON SWIHART

ANNA WOODHAMS, R. N.

"Little Don" and "Big Don" are indeed two men who need no introduction. They're friends to all. Whether firing up for a cold blast or sweeping up after the students, these two capable men are always on the job keeping the two buildings cozy and looking neat as a pin at all times. "Early to bed and early to rise," is a good slogan for these two early birds!

In her spick and span office, situated in the grade building, Mrs. Woodhams takes care of all our aches and pains. Hidden in the depths of her big medicine chest are all types of first aid equipment—adhesive, bandages, iodine, and numerous other sterile aids. Whether curing a case of blues or fixing up a sprained ankle, Mrs. Woodhams can be counted on for her cheerful manner.

MR. HOLAWAY

From 8:00-8:20 o'clock in the morning and 12:35-12:45 at noon, Jennie and Mary capably take charge of selling school supplies.

Under the management of Mr. Holaway, the store runs smoothly. Here you see Mr. Holaway arranging the books and supplies that must be taken care of every day.

The bookstore's activities begin before the regular school term, in order to have rental books ready. Each book must be marked, stamped, and for each a card must be filed until the book is returned.

The profits from the store are put into the general school fund. The beautiful pictures on the walls of the main floor hall were purchased with this money. Hanging in the school assembly is the most outstanding of these pictures, the Head of Christ by Sallman. This masterpiece was appropriately dedicated in January.

You

and

Your

Classes . . .

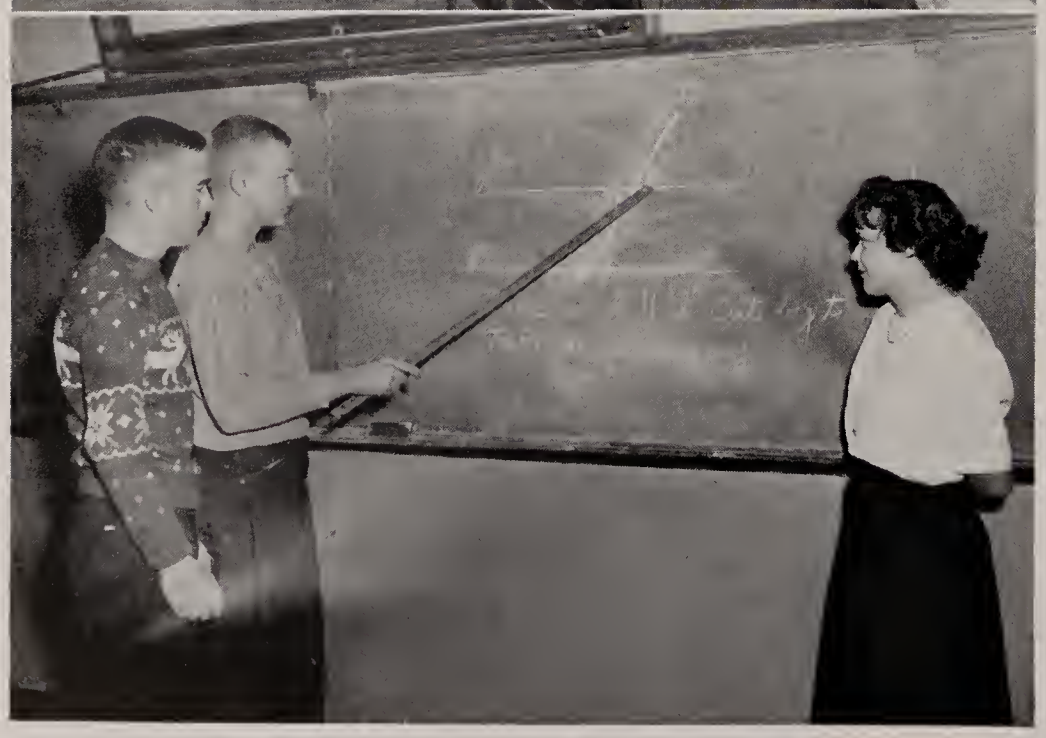
Different types of courses have been scheduled for your benefit. Whether YOU plan to be a lawyer or a homemaker, here in your classes YOU lay the foundation to achieve your goal.

Physics . . .

Very few subjects touch a person's life as closely as does physics. This subject develops reasoning powers and stimulates that uncommon faculty, "common sense." Who knows, perhaps the boys in this picture are uncovering mystifying secrets!

Library . . .

Our collection of books offers the student an excellent variety of material. Whether for deep concentrated reading or pure enjoyment, the library is indispensable.



Geometry . . .

Next to arithmetic no other branch of mathematics is as frequently used in our daily life as is geometry. Whether you are planning the intricate course of a ship or studying the layout of a baseball diamond, you are learning the use of geometry and its applications.

Typewriting . . .

Typing has been proved invaluable to everyone. Under Mr. Postma's capable supervision, the commercial department has produced excellent typists and placed many students in good office jobs.

English . . .

"Hitch your wagon to a star." —a few simple words by Emerson, but they carry a world of meaning. English and American literature gives the student a chance to delve into the masterpieces and to create some original compositions.

Spanish . . .

The knowledge of different languages has proved to be essential since the parts of the world of today are so closely related. Here in Mr. Holaway's class students learn to converse in Spanish.

Driving . . .

It's been said that more traffic mishaps are caused by teenagers than any other group. To prove that we can learn to drive safely and correctly, a number of students enrolled in a semester's class of driving, efficiently taught by Mr. Weddle.

History . . .

History represents the past in such a way that we can foretell the problems that are likely to face us in the future. Various types of history give us a vivid picture of our ancestors, of glorious deeds they performed, and of the origins of laws and customs.

Physical Education

The girls here, you see, are having fun folk dancing. Of course, more muscle building games are played: badminton, kickball, volleyball, and many other exciting activities.

Art . . .

Through art the student finds satisfaction in being able to express beauty in objects created. Under the guidance of Mrs. Rood the student has a chance to develop his artistic abilities.

Home Economics . . .

Miss Grubb, the new home economics teacher, teaches girls the fundamentals of good homemaking. For whipping up a batch of your favorite apple dumplings or sewing a fine seam, you may be sure the girls are expertly trained.

Shop . . .

Activities involving the use of tools and materials develop manual skill, initiative, and creative thinking. In these shop classes many boys acquire interests and discover aptitudes which lead to the choice of a definite vocation.

FIRST TEAM PLAYERS

Eugene Smith	"Smitty" was our leading scorer this season. He has another year.
Dennis Brumbaugh	A good shooter and rebounder. "Bud" is a sophomore.
James Heckaman	"Rabbit" was the smallest player on the team, a deadly "one-hander" from any place. He is a junior.
William Grimm	Bill has two more years to grow and he shows promises of better things to come.
Edward Eilers	Our only new man on the team, Eddie is tall, solid, and a sophomore.
Jerry Lentz	Jerry's hard driving and good ball handling helped considerably. Jerry is a sophomore.
Wilfred Anglin	Willie fights to the end, is a wonderful rebounder. He has two more years.
Howard Stutzman	Howard is a tall boy, moved up from the second team. He is a junior.
Wendell Metzler	Our only senior on the team, "Windy's" as fast as jet-propulsion and can be counted on to get in the game and fight.
Forrest Dunnuck	"Ike" fights like a true Bulldog and is an accurate shooter and a fancy dribbler. Ike will be with us two more seasons.

CHEER LEADERS

Do you mean it? I can't believe it. Freshmen! It isn't possible. These were only a few of the comments, some favorable, some not, that were heard in the halls that eventful morning of November 15. The reason — four freshmen were chosen to lead Nappanee High School's cheering section for the 1948-49 season. Moreover, these peppy girls, JoAnn Shively, JoAnn Farrington, Patricia Richmond, and Rose Reprogle, have done a splendid job of leading N. H. S. at all pep sessions and basketball games. Congratulation, girls!
